This had to-custain a reparate independent fight for near-by two hours against heavy odds, without fortifications of any kind. Besides, we knew little of the ioperspay of the ground in the inmediate Leighborhood. We had just arrived that right, and even received orders to be used errains at deslight. Although des. Rooker sext reinforcements, with orders to Hooker sent reinforcements, with orders to press forward and make a junction with Gengray, as the earliest possible moment, yet all such reinforcements did not participate in Gen. Geny's right. Itself the reinforcements arrived to time, and still more particularly had Gen. Hookey's orders been literately and promptly obeyed, it is not at all impensable that we would have engined goodly portion of our rebel brigade. Three times the event washe an afface in particularly had gen goodly portion of our rebel brigade. Three times the event washe an afface in particularly had each time they were driven back stagely and with heavy loss. The factor of the property of the same of the opolest and bravest character. All attempts to dank the enemy commenced to retire, all inde the country near Hankeville, committing great depredations. Their raids are more classifrous than any of their preceding ones in Hastinos and Hunteville counties. Brage has it in his power to musale the telegraph, but he can't murale the malls. The enemy has gained important ofvantages within the ast Karty sight-hours, which, unless they are countersected, will place the question of uning, the rebels remaining still in pos of what remained of it.

and barvest character. All attempts to deals are lately been taken to make Gen. Blair, as wall as his brother, understand that warder on the Administration from within the Administration ranks had better be stopped. It is now stated that Gen. Blair will not be here at all, unless his note he necessary fo ald the Administration in organizing the Blosse, but will, revising his sest in order to take command of a corps in Grant's array. Therefore, there is no longer reason to doubt that the contest lies between Schuyler Coffex and Washburse, of Illinois.

When the mischief shall have been consummated, and the harvest of ruin fully respect, the people will not hold these guiltless who know their duty and did it.

The proposition, or rather the least reaped, the people will not hold those guiltless who know their duty and did it not.

The proposition, or rather the implication, in the President's letter that it is not easy to have these forces under arms in Missousi, or to bring Gen. Herron's troope back from Louisians to act as a State police, is by no means logical. We believe it is possible to have a thoroughly loyal militia in Missouri sufficiently numerous to masser all the purposes of home defense, it is asked how they shall be organized? We refly that the present organized to so amend this order that persons who have fought from twelve to thirly months under the rebel flag shall not be admitted to its ranks, and capecially shall not hold its commissions.

reiopment of the secret plans of which I speak is, doubtless, so far accomplished as not to detract from their effectiveness by any thing which may be incidentally mentioned in this letter.

A large body of rebels were concentrated at Tuscumbia. Ala., and had rearrd fortifications of considerable strength and magnitude, in anticipation of giving our troops a bloody reception, and, if possible, to check our advance. To confirm them in the opinion that we ware combine to the contract of the confirmation of the confirmation of giving our troops a bloody reception.
